TO OUR READERS.

On the 20th of this present month, THE TIMES will be issued from its new home, southwest corner of Tenth and Bank streets. Unforeseen and unavoidable delays having occurred to prevent the completion of THE TIMES building by that date we will not enjoy the complete advantages of the new home. About the middle of October it is expected that the new press now in process of construction will be in position, and with the increased facility thus afforded the form of the paper will be changed to one of eight pages of a type in conformity with that of the leading metropolitan journal of the country. This will give to Richmond, Virginia, and the contiguous territory a modern newspaper, thoroughly equipped for the collection and collation of news, an exponent of true democracy, having the interests of all parts of the State at heart and of value to the reader and the advertiser. The paper will be printed on a fine perfecting press with the latest improvements, capable of turning out, pasted and folded, four, eight, ten, twelve, sixteen, or twenty-four pages, and unrivaled by any other press in the country. These improvements and additions are but tokens of our determination to give to Virginia and the South a first-class daily newspaper, of which they may be proud, and in which we shall take great pride.

THE PUGILISTS ARRESTED.

MAULIFFE-SLAVIN PRIZE FIGHT POSTPONED.

Both of the Principals Seized by the Police—Excitement in London at the News-Comments of Various Kinds—An Amusing Incident.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—[Special to THE TIMES by Daily Mail Company.]—There was an enormous amount of excitement in Fleet street and at the various sporting clubs over the arrest of Mauliffe and Slavin, which has been received with a general feeling of disappointment throughout the city. The sporting papers were besieged by people, and cars were driving up and going away at a rapid rate. Bulletins were placed in all the windows and crowds filled the streets.

The excitement shifted to the Lambeth district, in which the Ormond Club is situated. The Lambeth Police Club was crowded during the whole of the afternoon with reporters of the various papers, policemen, and well-known sporting men and women who were waiting the arrival of the prisoners, shortly after 4 o'clock a bustle was heard in the corridor leading to the court-room, and immediately all eyes were directed to the door giving entrance to it.

The prisoners were seen, and immediately all eyes were directed to the door giving entrance to it. The prisoners were seen, and immediately all eyes were directed to the door giving entrance to it. The prisoners were seen, and immediately all eyes were directed to the door giving entrance to it.

In a moment the door was opened and Slavin came in immediately followed by Mauliffe. The demeanor of the two men was quite different, for while Slavin had his eyebrows knit and a ferocious expression on his face, Mauliffe smiled and watched the proceedings in a quiet, half humorous manner.

THE PRISONERS' APPEARANCE.

Among those who followed the two pugilists in close order were Richard K. Fox, M. P., Crickton Temple, of the Ormond Club, Maudlin, and others. Chief Inspector Chisholm was duly sworn and stated that from information he had received he swore the information of September 20th against the prisoners that they were to engage in a prize-fight and to commit a breach of the peace, and having obtained warrants against them, he, this afternoon, arrested Mauliffe, who on hearing the charge, said to the Inspector, "I wish you had come twenty-four hours later."

But without making any resistance, he went quietly to the station. The witness proceeded to the Liverpool-street station, where he arrested Slavin, whom he knew. The prisoner replied to the charge: "All right, my boy. I don't see any harm in it; it's allowed all over the country."

In reply to the magistrate, the witness produced a copy of the Sportsman of the date of July 15th last, containing articles of agreement which were drawn up for the match, and also stated that he had seen the gloves which the prisoners had used to use, exhibited in the windows of the office of a sporting paper on Fleet street.

They appeared to him to be very thin over the knuckles, and he should say that a blow with them from a strong man like either of the prisoners would undoubtedly do a great deal of injury.

Mr. Temple here interrupted the proceedings, as he wanted to make an explanation, Mr. Partridge, the sitting magistrate, asked him if he was a solicitor, and Temple replying in the negative, said he would hear him later as a witness, if he had anything to say.

Successful Elopement in Norfolk—Sam Jones Closes His Lynchburg Meetings—Honored Withdrawal of Bowden—Popular Move by the A. and D. Road.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Mr. C. M. Mayer, treasurer of the Academy of Music, and Miss Bessie Tennille eloped from Norfolk this morning and left for Elizabeth City, where they were married. The young lady's parents were opposed to the marriage, and had long since prohibited Mr. Mayer from visiting their daughter. The lovers gave the old people the slip this morning, and one of the young lady's brothers was so mad that he was in waiting at the depot when the train came in this afternoon, with fire in his eye. The couple did not return, however, as expected to-day. It is only what I expected all along. The lovers are now in Norfolk City.

It is rumored here to-night that Congressmen Bowden will withdraw from the field on account of the opposition raised in Republican circles to his nomination. The plan, it is said, is to let Mr. Bowden draw out, and nominate either ex-Congressman John F. Deane or J. C. Asbury, of the Commonwealth's Attorney, Norfolk county. Mr. Bowden is then to be provided with a handsome diplomatic appointment.

Three white Hungarians working on the farm of J. B. Ferret were attacked while going home Saturday night by five negroes, who beat them unmercifully. All three were taken to the hospital. The negroes seemed exasperated because Hungarians alone are employed by Mr. Ferret. One of the men is not expected to recover.

The United States steamer Atlanta, Captain John N. Howell, arrived at the naval yard, Norfolk, yesterday. The ship was loaded with eleven guns, which was returned with nine guns. The Atlanta will receive extensive repairs here.

A FROM A MOVE.

The Atlantic and Danville Railroad Company has recently made a move, in a direction which has made it very popular with the white people. On its James river branch, it has ordered all its colored employees and put white men in their places. The sales of real estate in Norfolk city, Norfolk county, and Portsmouth since the first of January amount to $1,000,000.

Governor W. C. Houghton, of South Dakota, is in the city. The Governor is here with a party of Western capitalists to make land purchases.

PETERSBURG.

Confirmation by Bishop Van de Vyver—Railroad and General Notes.

Petersburg, Va., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Bishop Van de Vyver, of the Richmond and Petersburg railroad, arrived here yesterday. He will examine the line received and award the contract for the building of the Union depot in this city to cost $20,000, which will be completed in a few days.

The Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society have elected Mr. Grimes, of this city, chief marshal of the State Fair in 1891.

Mr. William L. Saunders, Secretary of State, has just completed the colonial records of North Carolina, a work which he has been engaged upon for several months. It will be the only work of the kind ever written, and will be an important link in the history of the State.

It is understood that the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company are to build a new line from Petersburg to Norfolk. The line will be built on the old right-of-way of the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad, and will be completed in a few months.

Mr. William Falcouer, an aged and well-known citizen of this city, was struck with paralysis yesterday. This is the second or third time that he has been paralyzed.

Following delegates have been appointed from this city to the Virginia State Sunday-school Union, which opens at Lynchburg on Wednesday next. From this city, the delegates are: John R. W. Collier, and R. L. Matthews. From the Methodist denomination: L. L. Marks, Hugh Collier, and R. L. Matthews.

There will be large sales of bright tobacco at the several stores in this city. The tobacco is of the best quality, and is being sold at a low price.

LYNCHBURG.

Sam Jones Closes His Meetings—Movement for Cheaper Coal.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Rev. Sam Jones closed his ten days' services here at 3 o'clock to-day, and has gone to Wilmington, N. C. His mission has attracted a great number of people, and he has been very successful in his work.

DEMOCRATS STILL WIN.

THE REPUBLICANS UNABLE YET TO MUSTER A QUORUM.

Reed Says If Langston Is Not Seated To-day His Case Will Be Dropped—Proceedings of Both Houses of Congress—General Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Despite all the boasts and threats of the Republicans they did not have a quorum in the House to-day, and THE TIMES' prediction was verified. Including Colonel O'Farrell and Crisp only one hundred and sixty-two members were present, or four short of a quorum. Many Republicans were absent to-day, and the House adjourned last Saturday night.

The delay in reaching an agreement by the Conference Committee on the Tariff bill will necessarily make it impossible for the bill to take effect on October 1st, and it will, therefore, be made to take effect as to future importations either on November 1st or thirty days from the approval of the bill. The Conference Committee have determined to give out no more information for publication until final agreement has been reached. Such agreement may be reached to-morrow or Wednesday, but cannot be reported to the House until a later date.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

The Novelist Has Bought an Estate in Samoa and Will Live on It.

Letters recently received in this city from Robert Louis Stevenson announce that the famous writer has determined to make his permanent home in Samoa, and with this purpose in view has bought 400 acres of land on the island of Upolu, the most important one in the Samoan group. The estate is situated in a beautiful spot, and is surrounded by a beautiful view of the sea. Stevenson is now in Samoa, and is expected to remain there for some time.

At a meeting of the Samoan people, held in the city of Samoa, the people of Samoa were asked to elect a representative to the Samoan people. The people of Samoa were asked to elect a representative to the Samoan people. The people of Samoa were asked to elect a representative to the Samoan people.
